A CHECK LIST OF EXPLICATION (1966)

Richmond Professional Institute
Richmond, Virginia

VOL. XXV, NO. 10 JUNE, 1967

NOW PUBLISHED

THE EXPLICATOR CYCLOPEDIA
Volume I: Modern Poetry

Edited by
Charles Child Walcutt and J. Edwin Whitesell
from the pages of The Explicator magazine.

At last this invaluable reference tool is available for students, teachers, and libraries. The essays, written by more than 200 scholars, teachers, and poetry lovers over a twenty-year period, explicate notable British and American poems. They have been carefully selected and edited, and are arranged alphabetically by poet. Succinct and informative, each essay has been elicited by a common query or problem, and the poems treated are those that have been found significant and in some way difficult. This is the first volume of the projected Cyclopedia; at least two volumes will follow.

A CHECK LIST OF EXPLICATION (1966)

This list has been compiled by the following committee: Periodicals: Arno L. Bader and David H. Stewart (University of Michigan), Kenneth B. Marshall (Denison University), and Hugh L. Smith (Long Beach State College, California); Books: John A. Hamilton (University of Illinois); Chairman: Morris Greenhut (University of Michigan).

EXPLANATION

All items are for 1966 unless otherwise indicated. An asterisk (*) before the author's name indicates explication in the 1966 EXPLICATOR (Vol. XXIV, Jan.-June—see Index for XXIV; and Vol. XXV, Sept.-Dec.—see the accompanying Index). The List covers explication of British and American writings only; the committee has been careful to include only items of unquestioned explicatory merit and substance, but it has omitted nothing merely because it is brief or its subject may be of doubtful literary importance. When titles are not self-explanatory, the subject of explication is indicated in square brackets [ ]. Abbreviated forms of periodicals are those of the annual PMLA bibliography.
